REMINDERS:

Students should wear their formal uniforms.

On the day of class performances, we would love for you to support the class by arranging to stay for the entire session. The order of the speech participants is set in advance and will not be able to be changed. Thank you for loving our students well by staying for all the speeches. You will be blessed as you hear the fruits of a job well done.

If you are able to volunteer to help with this year's speech meet, please let the school office know.
