

Date	Time	Student Name	Thesis Statement
Monday, April 10	1:00 PM	Seth Jarvis	Christians have a distinct work ethic because they are called to do all their work heartily as to the Lord.
	3:00 PM	Bree Pollack	Radical individualism is breaking down the family by resisting the man's fatherly authority in the home and disdaining the woman's role as wife and mother.
	4:00 PM	Alexis Merane Hart	Christian Americans must understand that propriety and not unhindered self-expression or personal comfort is a priority in the Christian life because propriety honors God, honors others, and honors self.
	5:00 PM	Gabe Krentel	Men were created to be wise leaders and to fulfill this role they must have God as their first love, families second, and work third.
Tuesday, April 11	1:00 PM	Samuel Shubin	A Christian's highest authority must be Scripture alone because Scripture is God's inspired Word, it is sufficient, and it is clear.
	3:00 PM	Cooper Christensen	A spiritual leader must have humility for three reasons: he must be humble to pray, he must be humble to seek wisdom, and he must be humble to serve.
	4:00 PM	Emersen O'Donnell	The gospel is the one, true myth for three reasons: the gospel portrays myth incarnate, previous myths prepare for the gospel, and the gospel myth magnifies God by means of beauty.
	5:00 PM	Konner Lassey	Physical documents are valuable because they contain and preserve unchanging truths, as seen in Scripture, in English legal tradition, and in the Great Conversation.
Wednesday, April 12	1:00 PM	Daniel Dierdorff	The church should be hospitable towards immigrants and refugees for three reasons: because God commanded it, because God has exemplified it, and because history has shown it to be good.
	3:00 PM	Amelia Lambert	When we rely on appearances to define reality, we open our minds to three dangers: distorting God's design, internalizing subjectivism, and embracing self-delusion.
	4:00 PM	Malia Clancy	Christians should understand the postmodern mindset in order to criticize its deconstruction of education, its denial of truth, and its distortion of self.
Thursday, April 13	1:00 PM	Kaden Harken	Before the foundation of the world, God unconditionally elected whom He would save as seen in the direct teaching of Scripture, the doctrinal implications of Scripture, and the historical teaching of Christianity.
	3:00 PM	Samuel Strickler	Christians should humbly, responsibly, and generously steward their God-given wealth.
	4:00 PM	Daniel Wendt	A society can be measured by its humor because a successful society is built on wisdom, because humor is based in wisdom, and because a society in decline lacks humor.